

Two reviewers		Two further examiners
One of the reviewers must be a professor and the other must be an expert who holds at least a doctoral degree and is in an outstanding position. Only one of them can be a co-author.
The committee, in particular the positions 1. to 4., should be composed with a view to gender equality. The members of the committee should be independent from one another.
1. First reviewer (member of FB5) title, first name/surname, email address, work group, if no prof.		3. Prof. of FB5 title, first name/surname, email address
2. Second reviewer (must be external) title, first name/surname, email address, institute postal address, work group, if no prof.		4. Prof. or expert holding a doctoral degree (not necessarily a member of the University of Bremen) title, first name/surname, email address, work group, if no prof. If external: institute, postal address
Two members of the University of Bremen		Substitutes
5. Member of the University of Bremen (non-professorial academic staff) title - if applicable, first name/surname, email address, work group		7. Professor of FB5 title, first name/surname, email address
6. Student of higher semester BSc or MSc (no doctoral students) first name/surname, faculty (Fachbereich), email address		8. Member of the non-professorial acad. staff title - if applicable, first name/surname, email address, work group
		9. Student first name/surname, faculty (Fachbereich), email address
Where will the colloquium take place? (lecture hall GEO 1550, please book with A. Rinkel, phone no.: 65051)
Date of the colloquium:
Starting time of the colloquium:

The Office of the Doctoral Examination Board requires the above-mentioned data at least 10 working days before the relevant Doctoral Examination Board Meeting. However, it would be better to submit the information earlier so that examination board members can be exchanged, if necessary.